For the purpose of investing the funds of the retirement system, the funds may 37 be combined with the funds of the public education employee 38 retirement system of Missouri, but the funds of each system shall be 39 accounted for separately and for all other reporting purposes shall be 40 41 separate. The board of trustees may promulgate such and regulations consistent with the provisions of section 169.040 as deemed necessary 42for its proper administration, pursuant to the provisions of this section 43 and this chapter. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined 44 in section 536.010, RSMo, that is created under the authority delegated 45 46 in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536, RSMo, and, if applicable, 47 section 536.028, RSMo. This section and chapter 536, RSMo, are 48 nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly 49 pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, to review, to delay the effective date, 50 51 disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held 52 unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2008, shall be invalid and void. 53

- reserve bank under a book entry system as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code, sections 400.8-102 and 400.8-109, RSMo. When such eligible securities of the retirement system are so deposited with a central depository system they may be merged and held in the name of the nominee of such securities depository and title to such securities may be transferred by bookkeeping entry on the books of such securities depository or federal reserve bank without physical delivery of the certificates or documents representing such securities.
 - [4.] 5. With appropriate safeguards against loss by the system in any contingency, the board may designate a bank or trust company to serve as a depository of system funds and intermediary in the investment of those funds and payment of system obligations.
- 76 [5.] 6. For all elections 26 to purchase credit received by the retirement system prior to January 1, 2006, the 27retirement system shall determine the cost of such purchase using the calculation 2829 method in effect for elections to purchase credit received by the retirement system 30 on or after January 1, 2006, provided that the member shall have a one-time, irrevocable option to continue to have the cost of such purchase be determined 31 32 using the calculation method in effect at the time of such election to purchase 33 such credit. To be effective, such option must be elected by the member on a form approved by the retirement system and such form must be received by the 34 35 retirement system by the close of business on June 30, 2006. The retirement system reserves 35 the right to prohibit a purchase, impose additional requirements for 36 making a purchase, or limit the amount of credit purchased [by the member in any year if the amounts paid by the member in that year would exceed any 37 applicable contribution limits set forth in if necessary for the retirement 38 system to comply with federal law, including but not limited to, the 39 provisions of Section 415 of Title 26 of the United States Code;

- Option 2. Upon the member's death, the reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person as has an insurable interest in the life of the member as the member shall have nominated

115 Option 6. Upon the death of the member prior to the member having 116 received sixty monthly payments of the member's reduced allowance, the 117 remainder of the sixty monthly payments of the reduced allowance shall be paid to such beneficiary as the member shall have nominated in the member's election 118 119 of the option or in a subsequent nomination. If survivorship benefits under option 2 are elected and the member

- at the time of death would have been eligible to receive an actuarial equivalent of the member's retirement allowance, the designated beneficiary may further elect to defer the option 2 payments until the date the member would have been eligible to receive the retirement allowance provided in subsection 1 of this section.
 - (b) If the member or a person retired on disability retirement dies before attaining age fifty-five but after acquiring five but fewer than twenty-five years of creditable service, and the person named as the beneficiary has an insurable interest in the life of the deceased member or disability retiree, the designated beneficiary may elect to receive either a payment of the person's accumulated contributions or survivorship benefits under option 2 to begin on the date the member would first have been eligible to receive an actuarial equivalent of the person's retirement allowance, or to begin on the date the member would first have been eligible to receive the retirement allowance provided in subsection 1 of this section.
 - 5. If the total of the retirement or disability allowances paid to an individual before the person's death is less than the person's accumulated contributions at the time of the person's retirement, the difference shall be paid to the person's beneficiary or, if there is no beneficiary, to the (1) surviving spouse, (2) surviving children in equal shares, (3) surviving parents in equal shares, or (4) person's estate in that order of precedence; provided, however, that if an optional benefit, as provided in option 2, 3 or 4 in subsection 4, had been elected and the beneficiary dies after receiving the optional benefit, then, if the total retirement allowances paid to the retired individual and the individual's beneficiary are less than the total of the contributions, the difference shall be paid to the (1) surviving spouse, (2) surviving children in equal shares, (3) surviving parents in equal shares, or (4) estate of the beneficiary, in that order of precedence, unless the retired individual designates a different recipient with the board at or after retirement.
 - 6. If a member dies and their financial institution is unable to accept the final payment or payments due to the member, the final payment or payments shall be paid to the beneficiary of the member or, if there is no beneficiary, to the (1) surviving spouse, (2) surviving children in equal shares, (3) surviving parents in equal shares, or (4) estate of the member in that order of precedence, unless otherwise
